Submitting student works for Reserve without the consent of the student author is a violation of:

- U.S. Copyright Law (17 USC, section 106) - prohibits copying or using a work, including student papers or projects, without the author’s permission.

- FERPA (Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act, 34 C.F.R. Part 99, Subpart A – General Sec. 99.1) - prevents an institution from disclosing or publishing a student’s written examination or paper without prior written consent.

Before the Library can accept a student’s work on reserve to be placed on Reserve, this form must be filled out and signed by the student. The signed, completed form must be included with the student’s paper.

Note: If the work has multiple authors, a permission form is required for each person.
